

ITRA Global Honors Carrie Holstead With The Diamond Leadership Award

PITTSBURGH, PA—(November 12, 2018)—Carrie Holstead, Chairman Emeritus of ITRA Global and Founder, President and CEO of Carrie S. Holstead Real Estate Consultants, the Pittsburgh affiliate of ITRA Global, was honored with the Dr. Ronald R. Pollina Diamond Leadership Award, the highest honor to be bestowed upon an ITRA Global member for exceptional dedication, mentoring others and extraordinary and innovative leadership.

“I am both honored and humbled by this award named after my mentor and friend, Dr. Ronald Pollina, whose contributions to ITRA Global were immeasurable”, said Holstead. “It is also extremely gratifying to have this prestigious recognition come from my peers for whom I have tremendous respect”, she added.

The Diamond Leadership Award was presented to Carrie Holstead by Debra Stracke Anderson, Chairman of ITRA Global, at its just completed fall conference in Charlotte, North Carolina. ITRA Global is one of the largest organizations in the world dedicated to providing conflict-free corporate real estate solutions for tenants and occupiers of commercial real estate, and has experience in more than 300 markets around the world.

Carrie S. Holstead Real Estate Consultants, an affiliate of ITRA Global, is the longest established tenant representation firm in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, having been founded in 1989. Its CEO, Carrie Holstead, was previously honored by Smart Business Magazine for leading a Top Company in Pittsburgh and was also recognized as a Woman of Influence by Real Estate Forum Magazine. She is the acclaimed author of the Insider’s View To Corporate Real Estate, was the keynote speaker at the Reed Smith corporate real estate seminar in New York City, and has made a number of guest television appearances. Clients range from local to Fortune 500 companies.

To learn more, visit www.itraglobal.com or contact Carrie Holstead at +1.412.255.3737.