

ITRA GLOBAL'S CARRIE S HOLSTEAD REAL ESTATE CONSULTANTS CONCLUDES LATEST OFFICE LEASE NEGOTIATIONS FOR EVEREST INFRASTRUCTURE PARTNERS

Strategic corporate real estate solutions support 600% HQ growth

We are proud to announce that Carrie S. Holstead Real Estate Consultants concluded lease negotiations on behalf of Everest Infrastructure Partners for their latest corporate headquarters expansion at Nova Tower 2, an amenity rich corporate campus located across the Allegheny River from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania's central business district. Strategic corporate real estate solutions maneuvered through a 600% headquarters growth in four years to support one of the fastest growing companies in Pittsburgh.

Everest Infrastructure Partners owns and markets thousands of wireless infrastructure locations that help connect today's rapidly evolving communications networks. They are a team of industry veterans with expertise in delivering mission-critical solutions to hundreds of network operator customers. About the tenant representation process, Maureen Doyle, Chief Financial Officer said, "Carrie's guidance, experience and tenaciousness proved invaluable in securing the perfect office space at lease terms with which we are very pleased."

Carrie Holstead is the former Chairperson of ITRA Global whose members have experience representing users of corporate real estate in three hundred markets around the world. Additionally, she serves as the President and CEO of Carrie S Holstead Real Estate Consultants, an affiliate of ITRA Global. Founded in 1989, it is the longest established tenant representation firm in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, has been honored as a Top Company by Smart Business Magazine, and is a certified Woman Owned Business. Carrie is a multi award-winning leader in tenant representation.

Carrie S. Holstead
Real Estate Consultants Inc.

Representing Users Of Corporate Space Worldwide